Make sure that the ground where you assemble your RockStand® Guitar Rack Stand is absolutely level and stable. Never use the stand on uneven surfaces or on surfaces which will not support its weight equally under each leg. Ensure that all screws are securely tightened before use.

Instructions

1. Remove the stand carefully from its packaging.
2. Place the stand on a flat and dry surface.
3. Unfold the stand completely.
4. Place the instruments one after the other on the stand, the instrument body must rest equally on the front and rear end of the stand.
5. The instrument neck must rest between two supports on the neck support.

Maintenance and Care

Use a dry cloth to clean the product. In the case of hard-working screws, use some oil spray or grease. Please regularly check the firmness of the screws and tighten them, if they should have loosened.

Security Guidelines

- The instrument body must be rounded in the lower region, see examples:

- Never move the stand while stocked with instruments.
- Keep children from playing with the stand away.
- Never use the stand as a ladder or stand for other things.
- Place the stand on flat and even surfaces. If the stand is not unfolded as described in the manual, it may tip over. Warwick GmbH & Co. Music Equipment KG is not liable for any personal or material damage caused by improper assembly or handling.
- The stand has been tested in conjunction with various instrument surfaces and lacquers. No problems were identified. We nevertheless recommend careful handling of vintage instruments and nitrocellulose paints. Welding, high humidity, contamination and solvents can cause chemical reactions that can not be tested or predicted. Warwick GmbH & Co. Music Equipment KG is not liable for damages resulting from the aforementioned circumstances.
- Please note that the instrument stand is only recommended for indoor use.
- The stand can be used at home or, with safe distance to the audience, on stage.
